MONDAY SEPTEMBER 28, 1874 East Hanover Presbytery. SECOND DAY. [Reported for the Dispatch.] AMELIA COURTHOUSE, VA.,?

September 25, 1874.

The Presbytery met at 94 A. M. The fol. lowing members, not present yesterday, appeared this morning: Rev. Wm. Brown, D. D., Rev. George L. Petrie, Dr. Sameel P. Christian of New Kent, Colonel C. R. Barksdale of Richmond, and R. A. Coleman of Namozine, and gave excuses for tardiness. Communications giving excuses for absence were received from Drs. Read and Witherspoon. Portsmouth was chosen as the place for the next stated meeting, and Tuesday before the fourth Sabbath of April at 71 P. M. as

When it was proposed to Ex upon Tues-day as the day of meeting instead of Wednesday, a little discussion arose, the point of and according to the latest reports. which was whether the day of meeting should be so fixed as to complete the business in time to allow such of the ministers as wish'to do so to return to their churches on Sabbath. Tuesday was agreed upon with this end in view.

Upon a report from the Committee of Do mestic Missions, presented by the chairman, the Rev. Mr. Petrie, there was an informal conference as to the means of obtaining aid for the churches of Onvet and Bethany in New Kent and Charles City counties; and also of supplying Williamsburg and other points on the peninsula. The matter was referred to a special committee.

Narratives from the churches were called for and read. These reports, with very few exceptions, show an encouraging state of religion in the churches. There is more than ordinary vitality manifested in church enterprises, and there has been gratifying accessions to the communion. There are wery few courches now without regular eninistrations. Rev. Hugh Henry, licentiate from the Presbytery of Montgomery, was received under the care of this Presbytery. At 12 M. the Rev. Dr. Hoge preached to large congregation, who listened to the sermon not only with close attention, but with much deep and serious feeling. Much of the time of both morning and af ternoon sessions was consumed in considering the condition of the churches of Olivet and Bethany, and their application for the ministerial services of Mr. Hugh Henry. The difficulty of the case was that there was no source from which the aid needed by these churches could be obtained. So much has been drawn from the Sustentation Fund for other churches that the needed amount could not be secured from this source. An effort was then made to arrange a field for evangelistic labor for Mr. Henry so as to in clude these churches and justify Mr. Henry's ordination as an evangelist, and also secure aid for his-support from the Evangelistic Fund. But no arrangement satisfactory to all parties could be effected. In view of these facts a call from the churches of Olivet and Bethany was not placed in Mr. Henry' On the report of the Committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly it was ordered that the action of the General Assembly (Minutes, p. 487) setting forth that every professing Christian should contribute according as God bath prospered him

504) requiring registration of all baptized children, and that transfers be granted, in writing, for those who remove from one church to another. The churches were directed to report in writing their compliance with this order. The churches were farther requested to give earnest attention to the plan of separate organization of the colored people into churches of their own, and report their action at the next stated meeting of the Presbytery. THIRD DAY.

The plan of Systematic Benevolence, referred by the General Assembly to the Presbyteries, was considered, and after some discussion was referred to the following committee to report at the spring meeting-namely: T.L. Preston, D. D., C. H. Read, D. D., and W. A. Campbell. The plan for the Commissioners' and Contingent Fund was referred to the same com-

kev. Hugh Henry was permitted to labor at discretion in the churches of Olivet and Bethany; and Rev. Dr. Preston, Rev. Dr. Read, R. B. Somerville, Colonel C. R. Barks-dale, and R. T. 1 rooke were appointed a committee to take into consideration the matter of proving aid for his support. A new directory was reported by the committee appointed at the last-meeting, and adopted. It provides that there shall be the following permanent orders of the day, at such hours as may beappointed by the Committee on Devotional Exercises: Springfor second day, state of religion, when nar-ratives shall be reported from the churches; third day, domestic missions; fourth day systematic benevolence. Fall-assond day same as second and third days of spring meeting; third day, Sabbath schools. The pastor and elder of the church where the Presbytery meets, as a committee on devotional exercises, are to arrange for these orders, and give due notice to the congrega-

The rules of order of the General Assembly were adopted and ordered to be printed in the directory.
On motion of Mr. Reynolds, it was resolved that the Committee of Domestic Wissions be authorized to employ an evangelist to labor in the bounds of the Presbytery, to be supported by such contributions as can be raised in the churches, together with such aid as can be obtained from the evangelistic

The several committees reported on the examination of Mr. T. T. Jones, and the examinations were sustained as setisfactory. Trial pieces were assigned Mr. Lones, aud with a view to his licensure an adjourned meeting was appointed to be held at Concord church, Brunswick county, on Friday before the fourth Saturday of November at 12 M.

The usual reports to Synod were adopted. TOD B. WOOD, D. D. S., The thanks of the Presbytery were 1eturned to the citizens of Amelia for their generous hospitality, to the Methodist church for their courtesy in offering the use of their house of worship, and to the railroad companies for courtesies to members of the Presbytery.

The morning services were held in the Presbyterian church, and services at night in the Methodist church.

The Rev. Dr. Pryor preached yesterday afternoon in the Methodist church, while the Presbytery continued its sessions in the Presbyterian church. At night Dr. S. J. Baird preached in the same place. Bev. J. P. Smith preached this morning in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Hugh Henry is to preach to-night. The Presbytery adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator during the session of the Synod.

Several of the ministers returned home after the adjournment, others will remain to preach on the Sabbath. A DESPERATE NEGRO.—Annapolis, September 25, 1874.—Charles Watkins (colored), of Richmond, obtained lodgings last Saturday night in the Annapolis watch-house, and when another lodger was brought in felled to the ground with a blow from the heel of his boot James H. League, Jr. He then fled from the watch-house, not, however, before he had received two blows from billies, one of which cut his head. Watkins made for the wharf, and, jumping into a boat, pulled for the sloop McClellan, lying in the stream. The anchor being out astern unknown to him, Watkins, finding he could make no progress, and his pursuers were near, jumped into the river to swim to the sloop. His strength gave out, and he was going down for the third or fourth time When he was rescued by Mr. Thomas Trott. of the sloop. Watkins shipped on the Mc-Ciellan, and decamped on Monday night.
